

Plenary Sessions:

Registration and Breakfast • Opening Session with speakers

Workshops:

Understanding the ILWU

Although born out of the Big Strike of 1934, the ILWU does not only consist of Longshore workers. This workshop will provide a brief history of the union, explain the many facets of the ILWU and trace the role women have played in the union.

Women in Union Leadership

Learn the basic skills of union leadership. Learn how to have a voice, how to make changes. How to protect your members basic rights. Find out why “Robert” & “Steward” are so important to your success & ability as a woman to take the steps you want to become an involved, effective, knowledgeable union member & a future union leader.

HARRASSMENT AND INTIMIDATION IN THE WORKPLACE

This workshop will; Define harrassment and Intimidation. Discuss the proper grievance procedure as laid out in the PCLCD. Both harrassment and intimidation are often confused and under-reported. We will clarify these issues in a fun and informative setting

Lunch • Workshops continued • Closing Session

“Where His-story-meets Herstory”

Women of the ILWU 1ST Leadership Conference.

This important event will bring together union women as they explore the strength of today’s working women. Please consider joining us in this ground-breaking event.

The conference will provide an opportunity to learn more about women’s leadership in unions, harassment, and women in labor history. This historic experience is being offered to anyone interested in improving their leadership skills, helping to maintain a workplace free from harassment, exploring the rich legacy of women in the ILWU, and learning more about the meaning of the powerful union message:

“An Injury to One Is an Injury to All”

We would like to start a collection a photos of working women to use in a slide show and possibly future publications.
